Khan Bahadur G. Saiyid Abdul Karim Sahib Suhrawardy : Whenever G permits are issued to bus owners they are insistently advised to have proper curtains in the buses as a protection from rain. Mr. A. Gopala Menon : It is a question of simple arithmetic, Sir.

Mr. M. K. Ananthasiva Aiyar : On a calculation I have found that for getting one form, one has to pay about $3\frac{1}{2}$ cash. May I know how is that amount to be paid in the treasury ?

Mr. A. Gopala Menon : A convenient unit of price will be fixed after reconsideration of the matter.

Mr. M. K. Ananthasiva Aiyar : May I know whether the Director is convinced of the considerable difficulty felt by the Managers of schools in the purchase of these forms by remitting some money in the Treasury ?

Mr. A. Gopala Menon : There must be some difficulty in the matter. But no representation has been made by anybody in regard to it.

Mr. M. K. Ananthasiva Aiyar : May I ask, could not some arrangements be made to purchase these forms on payment of money directly from the Director's office or from the Inspectors' office.

Mr. A. Gopala Menon : Even now the forms are purchased from the Director's office as well as the Inspectors' office.

Mr. M. K. Ananthasiva Aiyar : In that connection, have not payments to be made in the Treasury and the chalan receipt produced with the application forms in the Director's office and the Inspectors' office ?

Mr. A. Gopala Menon : The present procedure is that payment has to be made into the Treasury and the chalan receipt produced with the application forms.

Mr. M. K. Ananthasiva Aiyar : So, may I know whether some arrangement could not be made for payment of the money either in the Director's office or in the Inspector's office for getting the necessary forms ?

Mr. A. Gopala Menon : The matter will be considered.
